Admission counseling

Press release

It is hereby notified that the Manipur Students' Association Delhi (MSAD) has started Academic Counselling for the academic session 2011-2012 for those who are seeking admission to undergraduate courses in the University of Delhi. The same counselling is being done in parallel in Manipur as well. During the last two days, more than 40 aspiring candidates have been given counselling through both the helpdesk and telephone.

As a part of this Academic Counselling to the admission aspirants, MSAD has set up a telephonic counselling in Delhi from 2nd June to 9th June 2011 between 10 am to 2 pm. During this period, a helpdesk is available at the premises of Arts Faculty, University of Delhi (North Campus). For Manipur, a counselling desk has been installed at Ram Lal Paul Higher Secondary School, Imphal, from 3rd June to 9th June 2011 between 10am to 2 pm.

MSAD advises admission aspirants from being lured by admission brokers who would allegedly extend help in exchange of money and lead you towards complicated problems and ruin of career. We are ready to assist you. Please feel free and be comfortable to contact MSAD at (phone number & email address).
